HERA:	ATF
Reporting To:	Prof. Henry French
Responsible For:	-

The above part-time post is available from 1st September 2015 to 31st May 2016 in History within the College of Humanities.

Job Description

Main purpose of the job:

You will have responsibility for supporting the design, development and production of teaching and learning material and deliver either across a range of modules or within a subject area. Teaching responsibilities for the post will be three seminar groups for the first-year survey course HIH1410 Understanding the Medieval and Early Modern World; cover of an existing first-year Sources and Skills module in an area related to your expertise; and supervision of around 12 second-year independent study projects for HIH2001 Doing History. You will work with colleagues in History to ensure the efficient and effective delivery of teaching programmes in accord with the College's education strategy and implementing the External Affairs strategy. You will also contribute to the development and implementation of innovative teaching practices across the College.

Main duties and accountabilities:

1. Teach as a member of a teaching team within an established programme of study namely History, on three established modules.
2. Teach in a variety of settings from small group tutorials to individual supervisions, ensuring content, methods of delivery and learning materials meet the defined learning objectives for individual teaching sessions.
3. Develop own seminar plans, methods and approaches.
4. Supervise the work of students, provide advice on study skills and help them with learning problems.
5. Set and mark assignments and set examination questions as well as assessing the work and progress of students by reference to defined criteria and provide constructive feedback to students.
6. Seek ways of improving performance by reflecting on teaching design and delivery and obtaining and analysing feedback.
7. Supervise students' projects under guidance and supervision.

Liaison and Networking

The post holder will build internal contacts and participate in internal networks for the exchange of information and to form relationships for future collaboration and join appropriate external networks to share information and ideas.

Managing people

Manage own teaching, scholarly and administrative activities and supervise students' fieldwork and placements.

Initiative, problem-solving and decision-making

1. Deal with problems which may affect the delivery of their own teaching and contribute to decisions affecting the work of the team in History.
2. Develop initiative, creativity and judgement in applying appropriate approaches to teaching and learning support and scholarly activities.
3. Share responsibility in deciding how to deliver modules and assess students.
4. Contribute to collaborative decision making with colleagues on academic content, and on the assessment of students' work.

Planning and managing resources

1. Plan own day-to-day activity within the framework of the agreed programme.
2. Co-ordinate own work with that of others to avoid conflict or duplication of effort.
3. Contribute to the planning of teaching programmes.
4. Use teaching resources and facilities as appropriate.
5. Plan and manage own teaching and tutorials.
